

Columbus Boychoir School
Princeton, New Jersey

NEWSLETTER

Vol. V

April 27, 1961

No. 28

CHOIR will sing in the Carolina Room of the Chalfonte Hotel, Atlantic City, N. J., Sunday, May 21st, at 8 p. m. Tomorrow a concert will be given at Shippensburg, Pa., the company returning to Princeton afterwards. Other appearances are booked for the New York Schoolmasters Club (Brass Rail, Fifth Avenue at 43rd) Saturday, May 13th, 7:30 p. m.; McCarter Theatre, Princeton, Tuesday, May 16th, 3:30 p. m. (children's concert), and Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, Sunday, May 28th, 4 p. m. The entire student body will sing, as always, at commencement (Saturday, June 3rd, 10:30 a. m.).

BIRTHDAY of Timmy Thomas, 14, was celebrated last Friday.

FIFTH marking period ends tomorrow and reports will be issued next week. The sixth and final report for the year will be distributed during the week following commencement.

SIX teams are engaged every afternoon in rotation on the baseball diamond, the dodgeball court or the grounds (currently the swimming pool); that is, two teams play softball, two others dodgeball and the remaining two work under the direction of Mr. Jones. Names of teams and their captains and co-captains are as follows: Daydreamers, Pete Correa and Dave McMillen; Mafia, Jimmy Walker and Jim Helmeczi; Big Wheels, Demi Wilkinson and David Soper; Henchmen, Jerry Felton and Angelo Covino; Jaguars, Richie Browning and Doug Arnold, and The Magnificent Nine, Jim Bellanca and Bill Scizak.

ASSEMBLY program last Friday included two Canadian travel films, one on hunting in Newfoundland and the other on fishing in British Columbia. Tomorrow a third film will be shown called "Waterway Holiday," which gives a pictorial account of a family traveling the Trent and Severn River waterway in a cabin cruiser.

SATURDAY afternoon the boys who were at school over the weekend witnessed crew races on Carnegie Lake sponsored by Princeton University.

FORMER member of the faculty, Paul D. Ziegler, will be married to Miss Anne Marie Kranz on Saturday, May 13th, in Williamsport, Pa.

WIFE of Glenn Scott, another former faculty member, died recently. The Newsletter wishes to extend its sympathy to her family.